

English Poem

How would it be like,
If school starts at nine
We could sleep longer
And all would be fine

Parties in the week
Nobody would care
Flying overseas
What? That would be fair

Teachers would be chilled
Students would be thrilled
Bus`s wouldn`t be filled
Sleep might not be killed

I`m not an expert
So now I should shut
It wouldn`t ever
Ever happen, but...

How would it be like,
If school starts at nine
We could sleep longer
And all would be fine
